CALL FOR A HOLY WAR

Korean "Righteous Army" Issues Manifesto.

WOULD EXTERMINATE JAPS

Attempted Assassination of Durham Stevens, at 'Frisco, Said To Be Result of a Conspiracy Inspired by a Late Manifesto of "Army."

San Francisco, Cal., March 25.—The Call says that the attempt to assassinate Durham W. Stevens, the political adviser of the Korean council of state, it is now said, was the result of a carefully hatched conspiracy inspired immediately by a manifesto of the Korean "righteous army," calling upon all loyal Koreans to consecrate themselves to a holy war and exterminate all Japanese.

This manifesto reached here on the same ship which brought Stevens. The proclamation is signed by General Eyle Lin Yung, general of the Korean "righteous army," and is in part as follows:

"Manifesto: To All Koreans in all Parts of the World:

"Loyalty to his nation and fealty to his parents is the principal law of man's nature. The right to live and the right to die for duty is also the rule of nature.

Grievous Times in Korea.

"But, alas, grievous times have come upon Korea, our compatriots! We who have been educated by our five hundred year old dynasty and raised up by our four thousand year old ancestry have come under the domination of the barbarous savage islanders—the Japanese. They have swooped down upon our country and are indulging their barbarous appetites with a cruel heart. It is so much we could not say it with our tongues nor could we write it with our pens.

"The Japanese have abdicated our emperor, destroyed our villages, killed our brethren, robbed our land, seized our benefits and are the enemy not only of Korea, but of all the world, for they have violated the peace of humanity.

United for Independence.

"Compatriots, we must unite and consecrate ourselves to our land and restore our independence. We are sure our God will help us. We all must do our best to kill all Japanese, their spies, their allies and barbarous soldiers. The Japanese may compare the rising of our righteous army to the attempt of an insect to move a big tree, but right is on our side and we are confident that in the end we shall be victorious, opposing their treachery with the justice of our cause. We will sacrifice our lives to their guns and swords and as the front men fall the men behind will take their places. Defeated today we will again attack on the morrow until our vow to exterminate the Japanese or die has been accomplished.

Eyle Lin Yung.

"General Korean Righteous Army.

"Date, 4240 after Tan Koon.

Regard America as Friend.

"I. W. Paik, national president of the Korean Reform League, speaking of the action of the conspirators is quoted as follows:

"Stevens met the fate that comes to all betrayers," he said. "He came into Korea from America, which we have always regarded as our best friend among the nations. He betrayed us. He told us that the nation we most hate must be accepted as our master and he told us that the two Koreans most despised in their own land were the only ones to lead us and as we should go. But we are not fools nor dogs to submit"

"Who are the two Koreans most hated in their own land?" Paik was asked.

"Yee Wan Wong, the prime minister, who also is a Japanese spy, and Song Pung Chun, the minister of agriculture," he replied.

"And they will be laid low, too," he added.

There are said to be 200 Koreans in the two revolutionary leagues here and these are working with a million more who have fled into Russia to rouse the courage of their countrymen to the point of turning upon Japan and driving her out of their land, which the patriots here say is being robbed and pillaged by the brown conquerers.

Tokio, March 25.—The newspapers here are all issuing extras with accounts of the attempt to assassinate D. W. Stevens. Marquis Ito was deeply affected by the receipt of the news and said through his secretary:

"I cannot express my horror."

Marquis Ito is in feeble health.

Baron Ishii said to the Associated Press:

"Mr. Stevens was the last man of whom I would expect assassination at the hands of Koreans whom he has consistently befriended."

The fact that Mr. Stevens' life was safe in Korea and in Japan and that his assassination was attempted in America has brought out universal comment that the deed was the result of the anti-Japanese propaganda in America.

FOR EXTRADITION OF ROY.

Demand Made on France by the United States Government.

Paris, March 25.—A formal request for the extradition of Paul Roy to the United States was received at the American embassy Monday afternoon from Washington. It was subsequently turned over to the French foreign office.

Roy is a Frenchman, who married an American woman known as Gladis Calla, and who has been accused by the latter of killing her brother, Geo. A. Carkins, on Jan. 2, at Newington, N. H. After the death of Carkins Roy returned to Paris, where he still is.

The extradition documents are couched in the regular form and charge Roy with the murder of Carkins, etc. The answer of France has not yet been framed.

The convention will be in session for two days, and is expected to be the largest held by the Democrats in recent years.

Chicago Council Passes Ordinance.

Chicago, March 25.—After a protracted session lasting until past midnight, the city council adopted an ordinance to legalize a consolidation of the Commonwealth Electric and Chicago Edison companies which have a practical monopoly of the electric lighting in Chicago. The measure, which has been pending for two years, extends to the Edison and all subsidiary companies, the franchise of the Commonwealth, which has thirty-eight years of life.

To Inspect Navy Yards.

New York, March 25.—Rear Admiral Casper F. Goodrich, commandant of the New York navy yard, has been chosen by Secretary of the Navy Metcalf to make an inspection of the Atlantic and Gulf navy yards, with the object of reorganizing the present method of conducting the work. Admiral Goodrich will visit the yards or stations at Portsmouth, N. H., Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Norfolk, Va., Charleston, S. C., Pensacola, Fla, and New Orleans.

Judge Refuses to Offer Reward.

Carlisle, Ky., March 25—Judge McNeal, county judge of Nicholas county, refused Monday to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of any of the night riders of Friday night. He declared that he will not do so unless sanctioned by a meeting of the fiscal court now in session. Judge McNeal stated on Saturday that the county would offer a reward. This statement was made when asked by John F. Morgan, county attorney.

ENGLISH DUKE DEAD

Eighth Duke of Devonshire Answers Last Call.

DEATH OCCURS AT CANNES

Death of Duke Leaves a Gap in the Public Life of Great Britain—Had Been Most Active in Political Life—Twice Offered the Premiership.

Cannes, March 25.—Spencer Compton Cavendish, eighth duke of Devonshire, died here Tuesday of heart failure. He was born July 23, 1833.

The death of the duke leaves a gap in the public life of Great Britain, for, although his withdrawal from the Balfour ministry when Joseph Chamberlain launched his fiscal policy estranged him from a majority of the party, he still had a large following in the country, and as president of the Unionist Free Trade League, he took an active part in the campaign against tariff reform.

Few men have spent a more active political life than the Duke of Devonshire. He had been almost continuously a cabinet member in charge of some important department, as a Liberal before the split with Gladstone and later as leader of the Liberal-Unionists. He led the Liberals during the temporary retirement of Gladstone in 1875, and was offered but refused the premiership of the Midlothian campaign in 1880. He was again offered this honor upon the defeat of home rule, but he again refused.

The duke was also active socially and his entertainments at his Piccadilly residence and at Chatsworth house in Derbyshire, and his other country houses, were most notable.

The duke has no immediate family, and the dukedom passes to his nephew, Mr. Cavendish, who married the daughter of Lord Lansdowne.

The death of the duke places a badge of the Order of the Garter at the disposal of King Edward and this, in accordance with custom, will be returned to his majesty by the successor to the title.

A number of political offices are made vacant, notably the chancellorship of Cambridge university, the lord lieutenancy of Derbyshire and the provincial grand mastership of the Derbyshire Masons, a post which the duke held for half a century. The duke owned about 186,000 acres.

THE HIRSOWITE MURDER.

Negroes Arrested in Killing of Jewish Pawnbroker.

Atlanta, March 25.—John Williams, a negro, Monday afternoon arrested by detectives, and charged with being implicated in the murder of Jacob Hirsowitz, the Hebrew pawnbroker, who was shot to death in front of his place of business, 110 Decatur street, Saturday night, Feb. 29, confessed later in the afternoon to his part in the affair, and positively fixed the blame of the murder on B. Hooten and Jim Hopkins, two negroes, who are now being held in the Tower, having been lodged over some days ago, charged with being implicated in this crime.

HANGED HIMSELF IN BARN.

Farmer's Love Affairs Caused Him to Take His Life.

Toccoa, Ga., March 25.—Brooding for a month over the fact that he had been refused by the girl he loved, Jim Smith, a farmer residing about six miles from Toccoa, committed suicide Monday morning.

Some time ago Smith is said to have paid his addresses to a young lady of Westminster, S. C. About a month ago he was made to understand that the young lady could not marry him.

Since that time he has been very despondent, although he has attended well to his farm duties.

Monday morning he went to the barn to feed the stock. A short time afterward his brother passed through the barn and found the body of Smith suspended from a beam by a wire. He had taken a wire from a bale of hay, fastened it to the beam above, secured it about his neck and choked himself to death. When discovered he was not dead, but died in a few minutes afterward.

GUNTER WINS MAYORALTY.

One of the Hardest Municipal Fights in Montgomery's History.

Montgomery, Ala., March 25.—Gaston Gunter defeated K. C. Tyson for mayor Monday by over 600 votes. The vote was very large, even though rain had fallen all day. The primary ends one of the hardest fights for mayor in the history of the city.

The nomination of the primary is tantamount to election.

Emanuel Lobman and James H. Gallagher were nominated to be police commissioners, the offices being created by the last legislature. Owing to a change in municipal laws, Mr. Gunter will not go into office until October, next year. He is thirty-four years of age, and will be the youngest man who ever served as a mayor of this city.

MADE APPEAL TO GOVERNOR.

Prominent Mississippi Planters Are Threatened by Black Hand.

Jackson, Miss., March 25.—John Womack, his brother and son, prominent planters of Simpson county, in Mississippi, have appealed to Governor Noel in person for protection against black hand threats.

The men were ordered to leave the county of Simpson within thirty days or "stretch hemp," meaning they would be hanged. Governor Noel advised the men to return to their home and be on active guard. No other protection is announced as guaranteed them.

Three-Cornered Race for Governor.

Columbia, S. C., March 25.—The Hon. John G. Richards, Jr., of Kershaw, has announced that he will not make the race for governor in the coming democratic primary. His announcement that he will not run leaves three candidates in the field, Governor M. F. Ansel, Colonel C. C. Featherstone and Cole L. Blease, of Newberry. Governor Ansel will run on a local option as between dispensary and prohibition; Colonel Featherstone's platform is state prohibition, and Cole Blease says he will run on his past record.

Boycott Crusade Growing.

Hongkong, March 26—The boycott crusade is growing. Envelopes are stuck on all the walls reading: "The Japanese are a barbarous humbug. The Chinese government does not love the people, who are now weeping. The Chinese will cause a bloody boycott of the Japanese immediately and can use annihilation, which is expected within a few years."

State Senator Dead.

Montreal, Mch 25.—S. P. Prancot, of Niagara Falls, a member of the state senate of New York, who was operated on here Sunday for paralysis, after showing encouraging symptoms up to last evening, suffered a relapse during the night and died Tuesday.

Held Unconstitutional.

Washington, March 25—The supreme court of the United States has held the Minnesota railroad rate law to be unconstitutional, because of the maximum penalties imposed by it.

20 HURT; 3 FATALLY

Head-on Collision on the Queen and Cerescent Road.

CARS WERE BADLY WRECKED.

Accident, It Seems, Was Due to a Failure to Receive Telegraphic Orders Owing to Some Misunderstanding—Injured Removed.

Lexington, Ky., March 25.—Twenty people were injured, three fatally, in a head-on collision between a Blue Grass special passenger on the Q. & C. railroad and a special freight train at Curdville crossing, between Burgin and High Bridge, in Mercer county, early Tuesday.

The Blue Grass special was on its way to Lexington and Cincinnati.

The cause of the wreck, as near as can be ascertained, is owing to the fact that the night operator for the Queen and Crescent had been relieved several weeks ago and that the day operator had not yet reported for duty.

When the Blue Grass special reached the Burgin depot there was no order and the train rushed on. At Curdville crossing the freight train was also proceeding at good speed and crashed into it. The cars were badly piled up and several hours were required to clear the track.

Danville and Burgin physicians responded to the call for help and rushed to the scene.

The injured were brought to Lexington on a special train.

HANGING AT KNOXVILLE.

Five Times Man Had Been Respited by the Governor.

Knoxville, Tenn., March 25.—John McPherson, white, was hanged here at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon for the murder of Deputy Sheriff William Walker. Five times since the supreme court affirmed the sentence has McPherson been respited by the governor.

On the same night that he killed Walker, McPherson had killed Grant Smith, in Knoxville, and was making his escape to the mountains when he shot down the officer. In his wild drive for liberty McPherson was accompanied by his father, who is serving ten years for complicity in the Walker murder. Young McPherson was at liberty for a year before he was captured.

ATTEMPTED ASSAULTS.

Third Tragedy in a Texas County Within Two Weeks.

Conroe, Tex., March 25.—News reached here Tuesday of the third tragedy within two weeks in Montgomery county, where negroes have lost their lives in or following attempts at criminal assault on white women.

Mrs. Wright, residing at Timber, early Sunday morning was aroused by some one trying to enter her room through a window. She fired with a revolver and mortally wounded a negro. He died a few hours later.

About two weeks ago a negro was hanged here for prowling about the premises of a woman whose husband was absent, and last week two negroes were shot and killed following an attempt to criminally assault a young woman near Magnolia.

Suspected of Complicity.

Vigo, Spain, March 25.—One of the passengers on the steamer Urmatin Grange, just in from Buenos Ayres, has been taken into custody charged with complicity in an attempt upon the life of Dr. Alcorta, president of Argentina. Another man suspected in this connection managed to make his escape to Portugal.

Charged with Conducting Lottery.

Burlington, Iowa, March 25.—Peter Ruff, a barber, has been arrested here by federal authorities charged with using the mail for unlawful purposes. Ruff is charged with dealing in lottery tickets and it is said the lottery business has been conducted on an extensive scale.

Were Inspected Tuesday Evening. Large Crowd Was Present.

A FINE EXHIBITION DRILL

The Men Turned Out in Good Condition in Heavy Marching Order, and Were Admired by the Inspecting Officer—Dance at Conclusion.

The inspection of Company H, Second Infantry, Third Battalion, Florida Troops, Captain J. W. Blanding commanding, with Lieutenants Warren and Wheeler present, was held at the new armory Tuesday evening, in accordance with the instructions of Adjutant-General J. Clifford R. Foster, and proved the most successful military function ever held since the Guards were organized, fifty-nine men, rank and file, reporting at this meeting.

The inspection was made under the supervision of Captain Lawrence S. Miller, Coast Artillery, United States Army, assisted by Captain Byron McG. West, a graduate of East Florida Seminary, who represented the Adjutant-General.

Major A. H. Blanding, commanding the Third Battalion, was present, as was also Col. I. E. Webster, F. S. T., retired, and Captain N. H. Cox, of the University, who is a supernumerary of the State Troops.

There was a large crowd present, and the handsome armory was never shown off to better advantage, every department being well lighted and in order, and those present made a thorough inspection of the quarters.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the company was called to attention, when the inspection began. The men were in heavy marching order, wearing the khaki uniform, with all accoutrements. The men presented an excellent appearance as they stood at attention, while the inspection was being made, and it is evident that the inspecting officers were well pleased with the company and its general deportment.

At the conclusion of the inspection the company was marched upon the streets, where an exhibition drill was given, the men executing the various maneuvers and manuals with the regularity of the regular soldier. Captain Blanding and his officers are to be complimented upon the efficient manner in which they have trained their men.

Among those present was a large number of ladies, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the affair. During the evening, while quarters were being inspected, delicious fruit punch was served by a committee of young ladies, and the occasion was closed with an informal dance by the young people.

DEATH OF MRS. DENTON.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Denton Passed Away at Wildwood.

Information of the death of Mary Ione, wife of Dr. J. T. Denton, which sad event occurred at Wildwood, was received in this city with a great deal of sorrow, as the deceased had many friends in this section who knew her as a little girl and a young woman.

Mary Ione Denton was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Denton of New York, grand-daughter of Hon. R. H. Hall, deceased, niece of Capt. H. C. Denton, deceased.

She was born in Brooklyn, N. Y. When five years old her parents moved to Florida. She attended school at Lake View and Micanopy for several years, and in 1904 she went to school at College Park, near Atlanta, Ga., the same college from which her mother graduated, then known as the Southern Female College of LaGrange, Ga.

On Dec. 24, 1904, at the home of her parents in New York, she was married to Dr. J. T. Denton of Gitano, Miss, where they lived until March, 1906, when they moved to New York, living with her parents while her husband took post-graduate work. In November, 1906, they located at Sanford, Fla., where she contracted the dreadful disease, consumption, which claimed its victim on March 17th, 1908, at Wildwood, where she was in hopes of regaining her health and strength. She was laid to rest on Wednesday afternoon, March 18, in the Micanopy cemetery, funeral services being conducted by the visiting Presbyterian minister. Many relatives and friends attended. While she had never connected herself with any church, she professed faith in Christ as her Savior, and had a hope of Heaven. She leaves a husband, one baby boy nineteen months old, father, mother, one brother and sister, to mourn their loss.

Off to Gulf Hammock.

A jolly quartette, comprising W. W. Colson, B. R. Colson, J. M. Prevatt and Mr. Smith, left Wednesday night for Gulf Hammock, where they will spend the next two or three days hunting and fihsing.

The Colsons own a large tract of valuable land in Gulf Hammock, which is said to abound in wild game, the streams affording fine fishing. The trip will prove quite a novel one to Mr. Smith, who is from Battle Creek, Mich., and who has never experienced a hunt in the wilds of such a country as Florida. He will no doubt have a great deal to relate to his Northern friends upon his return home.

SANTA FE NEWS.

Cowardly Attempt to Murder a Colored Woman—Crop News.

Santa Fe, March 25.—The farmers are rejoicing because of the fine rain yesterday. It was getting too dry for seed to germinate. They are putting in a larger provision crop than usual this year, but the cotton acreage will not be as large as last year. Oats are looking fine, with prospects of a good yield.

Miss Alma Blitch, who has been quite sick for the past fifteen days, is improving we are glad to report, but is very weak yet. She has the prayers of a large circle of friends and relatives for her speedy recovery.

A cowardly attempt at murder was made Monday night in the McGregor quarters, just after dark, by one Walter Colley, colored, upon a defenceless colored woman. He slipped up to the woman's house and shot her, the shot tearing off one arm near the shoulder. Drs. Bishop and Roberts amputated the limb and dressed the wound Tuesday morning. She is not expected to live. At last reports the asassin is still at large. It is claimed that he is an ex-convict.

The road gang has come and gone, but not without leaving signs. Overseer Feaster has proven his competency as a road maker. He has done some fine work, but not enough of it to satisfy those that complain. Come again, Feaster, we had rather see you than a candidate.

There appears to be a growing impression among the Democrats of this State and county that the band wagon is really worth riding on to sure victory, but when that day comes silver dollars will contain the motto: "In Hoc Signo Vinces" beneath a picture of Carrie Nation rampant hatcheting a saloon.

The many friends of Road Supervisor Feaster here think that he acted wisely in his conclusion not to enter the race for sheriff this time, as good road makers are scarce now, and he being one of the best in the county, we had rather keep him on the road and use some of the available material on hand which Alachua county is so abundantly blessed with.

Mrs. Minnie F. Godwin of Rex returned home Friday, after a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blitch, here.

Mrs. W. A. Jones of Madison, Ga., returned home Saturday. She came to attend the burial of her father, Mr. Eli Futch, whose death occurred on the 16th.

J. C. Holder returned to Citronelle last week, after a visit to relatives and friends here. Come again, John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McGregor have returned home, after a two-weeks' visit to friends and relatives at Live Oak.

CHILD WAS IN DANGER.

Found a Rattlesnake in Barn, and Notified Its Mother—Reptile Killed.

"Mamma, come here, there's an ugly snake in the barn.'

This statement from Charlie, the little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Arnow, created anxiety and excitement on the part of the fond mother of the little fellow.

"Where is the snake, my boy?" excitedly asked the mother, who grabbed the woman's favorite weapon—the broom.

"Right out here, mother," he replied, and with that he led the mother to the barn, where sure enough she discovered a rattle-snake of the diamond species about two feet in length.

His snakeship was quickly dispatched, and as evidence that it was a real, live snake, Marshal Arnow carries two rattles around in his pocket.

It was a narrow escape for the little fellow, and his thoughtfulness in reminding his mother of its presence probably saved his life.

Woman's Missionary Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church was held at the church Wednesday afternoon and was well attended, those present manifesting the deepest interest in the subject, "Mexico." The leader was Mrs. A. W. Taylor, and the watchword, "Fellowship."

At this meeting Mrs. J. C. Evans was elected president to succeed Mrs. L. C. Smith, who has filled the position admirably for the past year, while Mrs. J. D. Turner was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Mrs. A. W. Taylor.

The report of the treasurer on mite box and other collections was most encouraging, aggregating about $160 for the year.

In the evening there was a teachers' meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Higdon, East Main street N., which was also well attended and very interesting.

A New Line of Goods.

Attention is directed to the change of advertisement of the Baird Hardware Company, which has branched out into the base ball line as one of the specialties this season. For a long time it has been a difficult matter for lovers of the national sport to secure standard goods, with but one exception of standard make, in the city, and on this account prices have been kept up. The Reach line of goods, however, have found their way here through Baird's store, and they are taking well, because they are proving the "right stuff" at lower prices than have been charged by goods that have enjoyed a monopoly.

A MOST IMPRESSIVE WEDDING.

C. C. Chitty and Miss Ida Colman United in Holy Bonds of Wedlock.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity Episcopal church Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, the contracting parties being C. C. Chitty and Miss Ida Colman, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Colman, Rev. Francis H. Craighill officiating.

This was a very quiet affair, only members of the families of the groom and bride and a few intimate friends being present. However, it was a pretty and most impressive ceremony, the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal church being carried out in the same.

The bride was attired in a handsome white chiffon broadcloth jacket suit, with lace waist and white hat, which was entirely becoming, while the groom wore the conventional black.

The bride is a charming young lady who has been reared here. She is possessed of a sweet disposition, which has made for her many admirers among the young set.

The numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chitty wish them long life and happiness in their married state.

"Singin Skule Beginment."

The members of the B. Y. P. U. have arranged with Mr. and Mrs. J. Bassett Willard of Cincinnati for a date with their funny and very popular entertainment entitled the "Singin Skule Beginment" and have fixed on the date of April 2nd, at the opera house. This entertainment has been a very great success in all parts of the country. It is a delicious compound of pure, clean, wholesome, jolly fun. It is not all singing but mixed in with a lot of bright, pretty, catchy songs and spirited choruses will be found a number of funny character impersonations and other features in greater number than one would imagine could be crowded into one single performance. All of the coaching and drilling will be attended to by Mrs. Billingsly, who will also play the leading comedy part.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Florida State Horticultural Society was invited one year ago, at its annual session held in St. Petersburg, to meet this year in Gainesville. The invitation was given by Dr. Sledd, Mayor Thomas, and the Gainesville Board of Trade, and was accepted in spite of the claims of several rival towns anxious to secure the meeting for themselves. The victory for Gainesville was largely due to the efforts and speeches of Mr. W. N. Wilson, one of the most prominent members.

The executive committee of the society has settled upon May 12 to 15 inclusive as the time for the annual meeting of 1908, and has appointed Mr. Wilson as chairman of the local committee on arrangements. A large attendance is expected, and the officials would not be at all surprised if this meeting proved to be the largest held in its history.

The Horticultural Society comes of age this year, this being its twenty-first session. It is consequently responsible for its actions and knows its own mind. During these twenty-one years it has held its annual meetings in about every part of the State from Pensacola to Miami, and it is fitting, as well as a unique coincidence, that it should celebrate its coming of age within a few miles of Interlachen, the place of its birth. The most numerously attended meeting was at Miami, the second best attended being last year at St. Petersburg, when upwards of three hundred were present.

The society is composed of the most advanced horticulturists of the State, although many of its members are from other parts of the United States. Its "proceedings" go to many foreign countries as well as to all parts of this country. The "proceedings," composed of the speeches and discussions made at its annual meetings, are considered an important part of scientific literature. These reports, or "proceedings," are the best and most handsome published by any horticultural society in the United States.

In spite of the great work accomplished by the society it has no other support than the annual dues from the members. At present it has about seven hundred members. Anyone can join by paying one dollar and subscribing to the constitution. As every member receives free a copy of the "Proceedings," he really gets in return for his small outlay many times its value.

G. D. Folks, traveling solicitor for The Sun, has been put out of business for a few days by an attack of the mumps, and is now confined to his home. He has added many names to The Sun's already large subscription list, and as soon as he recovers he will renew his campaign and "keep everlastingly at it."

If some really valuable thing has come to be simply "in the way," either in the home or office, why not sell or exchange it through a classified ad.? You can!

It is a pretty serious outlook for the community when there are only about $300,000 worth of indictable offenses left between Abe Ruef and freedom.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

By Herbert J. Hapgood.

The mark of recognition in the high-grade employee is that he is equal to all occasions. Whether salesman, clerk or executive, he will be able, as the prize-fighters say, "to meet all comers." He can sell a bill of goods just as readily across a table laden with a plank steak and entrees of expensive demeanor, as over the counter in a store. If his customer is of the "ham and egg" sort, the high-grade salesman will be perfectly at home buying him a lunch at a popular priced restaurant. On the other hand, his customer may be president of a railroad buying one thousand miles of steel rails. The high-grade business getter will be just as comfortable with him as with the "ham and egg" buyer, and will know how properly to entertain him.

A house which does business with big men must have a representative who can be just as big a man as the next fellow. In dignified self-confidence he must feel at all times on the same level as the man with whom he has to deal.

There is nothing more harmful to the business welfare of an establishment, for instance, than to have in its employ clerks of a cheap and unintelligent character. Such employees, not being able to fit all occasions and raise themselves, at least for the time being, to the social and intellectual level of their customers, lose thousands of dollars which can never be recovered. High-grade clerks earn the difference in salary twice over by the demonstration of courtesy alone.

"Kindly take my card to the manager," requested one of the largest customers of a New York jobber, as he came into the store for the first time.

"Pardon me," replied the shabby looking individual, who sat at a desk near the door. "Pardon me, but I am the manager."

If you are a manager, don't look like an office boy. Be high-grade enough to look the part, act the part, and feel the part.

A friend of mine tells me that he always feels like a millionaire, in spite of the fact that he is a man of but moderate income. There are no millionaires among his acquaintances; nevertheless, if he had to do business with the richest man in the world, he would have the personality to carry him through; he undoubtedly would be equal to the occasion.

He had that nameless something—that mark or recognition peculiar to the high-grade man. He was prepared to "meet all comers," and was at all times big enough for the occasion.

Judge Horatio Davis will be the next mayor of Gainesville, and will be elected without opposition. It will be a fitting tribute to one of the best men who has ever honored Gainesville with his citizenship, and an honor of which any man would justly feel proud. Judge Davis is possessed of one of the brightest legal minds of any member of the Florida bar, and is universally esteemed by all who know him. This is not the first political honor that our people have sought to bestow upon him, but being of a retiring nature he has, heretofore, flatly refused to accept political office since his residence in Gainesville. The editor of The Sun has had the honor of the acquaintance and friendship of Judge Davis for many years, and never have we heard an individual speak disparagingly of him—either as a man or lawyer. He will make Gainesville an able and impartial chief magistrate, and in honoring him the people will honor themselves.

Sometimes a removal of home or business would solve many hard problems. Think it over, watching the ads. the while.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Captain J. W. Daw of Pensacola shot and seriously wounded Police Officer Henderson, the Captain mistaking the officer for one of a gang of negroes upon whom the officers were making a raid.

The orange growers of DeSoto county met last week and added about forty members to the list. This is a branch of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Protective Association, which organization is doing a fine work in the State in the matter of bettering transportation rates.

Mason Scarrit of Pensacola found wrappen in a large roll of paper $500 which had been lying there for over thirty years. Mr. Scarrit says that the money is the proceeds of a land sale made by him in Pensacola thirty years ago. He does not remember ever having put the money in the trunk.

The Edwards Construction Company of Tampa will shortly commence building the new quarantine station. The building will be constructed on the ballast reef created by the discharging of ships' ballast. The new buildings will be modern in every respect, costing $13,168.50, and will be finished in about three months.

Mike Tolen, a prominent farmer residing between Lake City and Ft. White, was murdered by unknown parties on his farm Monday morning. News was soon carried to Lake City and a posse headed by bloodhounds were soon on the way to the scene of the murder. Certain parties are suspected, and it is believed that arrests will soon be made. Sam Tolen, a brother of the dead man, was murdered last summer by unknown parties. The trouble is the outcome of a family feud.

About 1 o'clock last Friday morning Mrs. Wood, who is visiting her brother, Mr. E. C. Bennett, was awakened by someone trying to enter her window. She ran into her brother's room, calling him to her rescue. Mr. Bennett grabbed his gun and fired through the window. The burglar yelled as though he had been hit, and Mr. Bennett pursued the man to the front gate, firing at him the second time, but the man, who was a negro, made his escape, but he got a good scare for his trouble.—Ocala Banner.

A man named Tompkins, who formerly lived at Ashton Station, but who recently had been employed as a woods rider by a naval stores firm operating near Perry, in Taylor county, was killed at that place by negroes who had gotten into a row over a game of craps. When Tompkins went out to quiet them one of the negroes, without provocation, pulled out a revolver and fired at him six times, only one ball taking effect, and that in the center of his breast, causing almost instant death. The murderer escaped, and Tompkins' employers have offered $300 reward for his capture.

A coroner's inquest was ordered held on the body of a two-year-old child at Orange Bend on Tuesday last, under the following circumstances: A colored turpentine laborer, named Henderson, went to his work on Monday morning, and shortly thereafter his wife went fishing for the day, leaving a ten-year-old boy in charge of their two small children. Later in the day the boy hunted up the father and informed him that someone had killed the baby. Upon reaching his home he was horrified to find the dead child in the yard with its skull crushed in, the opening appearing as having been inflicted with the head of a hatchet. The boy and the four-year-old brother of the dead child accuse each other of the deed, and both deny being guilty.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

Szys the Farmers Do Not Appreciate Advantages Offered Children.

Editor Sun: If we can take the "Year-Book of the Department of Agriculture" as good authority the voting population (male) of the United States in 1900 was 21,329,819, of which 11 per cent, or 2,326,295, were illiterate. Omitting the illiterates, which come to us chiefly from Southern Europe, and the negroes, the same authority places the illiterates of the farming or agricultural class at 800,000, and this number comes from a male agricultural population of 7,500,000 in round numbers. This 7,500,000 farmers, 800,000 of whom are illiterate, represent a total agricultural population of 30,000,000—nearly half of our census of 1900. If your readers doubt my figures, let them examine the above mentioned volume issued for 1901, pp. 134-3-6. If the above conditions exist, do they not show that there is something radically wrong in our boasted educational system? Previous to our Civil War very little attention was paid to our public schools, especially in the South, and the poorer farmers, who were unable to send to private schools, seldom had over a three-months' school out of every year, and I will say that this condition existed in many States for ten or fifteen years subsequent to our war; but, for the two last decades, every State has annually added to its educational advantages, until most of them furnish at least five-months terms for their common schools. In addition to our common schools, which in many of our States have terms of seven and eight months, we find in every State scientific and experimental schools, at which our children can be thoroughly drilled in the useful sciences. To none of the sciences has more attention been paid and to teach which more money been spent, than that of agriculture, for our States jointly and severally appreciate the farmer, and in providing for his primary and higher education, prove it. Does the farmer clearly appreciate what the States have done for him? With the greatest respect for them collectively and respectively, for I was raised on a farm, I answer no, and I am so persuaded, not only from various school statistics I have before me, including national returns of the average and aggregate attendance of town and rural schools, but from personal observation as a teacher for the last twelve years, having, within that time, taught in city, town and country schools.

Any honest critic will grant that the farmer's child usually has the chores to do around home; that in many instances he lives a long ways from the school house, and that bad weather frequently prevents his attending, while the town child has no chores, lives near, and has sidewalks instead of muddy, wet roads. Mr. Baily, in an address made last summer before a school convention at Little Rock, touching on these points, said that in three States where compulsory school laws had been adopted the above hindrances to rural attendance ceased, "As if by the touch of a witch's wand," and that he had never known of more than one fine being imposed in the same school community. And further, the people who first bitterly opposed the law, subsequently advocated it. As one who has boarded in their families, I attribute this indifference to thoughtlessness and force of habit, more than anything else. The parent never went to school much himself, and in his estimation he has done very well, he has his little home, his mule, a few cattle, and usually thinks that each of his children, being no better than himself, must start just as he did. He does not clearly appreciate the changed conditions, and the idea of providing a place away from the family gossip, where his children can study at night, is one of these new methods that he fails to appreciate. He was furnished with no such opportunity, and his children must do as he did. The teacher who requires the morning's 1st recitations 'to be prepared at home by lamplight is most too eager in his work, and the teacher who expects to interfere with and disturb the long established family rule of rising, milking, feeding, breakfasting, so as to do these things and get to the school house by 8:30—yea, 9:30 a. m.—must learn from experience that it can't be done. I have a patron, trustee of the school, too, who lives not over four hundred yards from the school house, to whom the above statement exactly applies.

As a rule the farmer thinks that his class is the most abused and least provided for of any other trade or profession. I ask him to stop but a moment and estimate the millions of dollars that are annually spent to furnish him, not only with the best common school, but agricultural training schools, where his boys and girls can pursue thorough scientific courses; and yet, not through with its liberal manifestations, the nation, for his especial benefit, has established a rural free delivery, which delivers his letters at his door. No, the father must be taught that these opportunities, placed before him and for his special benefit, cost immense sums of money; that these sums are cheerfully donated to prepare their children for the arduous duties which the future has in store for them, and if the people of the rural districts will not properly accept of these opportunities, then they, for their children's sake, should be made to do so. WHO USES HYOMEI?

The Best People in Gainesville, Say J. W. McCollum & Co.

No other remedy or treatment for catarrh has ever been as popular or made so many remarkable cures in Gainesville as Hyomei.

The best people attest its curative virtue in catarrhal troubles, say J. W. McCollum & Co., who are the local agents. The fair way in which Hyomei was sold, to refund the money unless it gave satisfaction, was the best proof when it was introduced that it possessed unusual curative powers. J. W. McCollum & Co. took all the risk of the treatment giving satisfaction, and left it to the purchasers to be the judge.

The sales rapidly grew and to-day there is no other remedy in J. W. McCollum & Co's. stock that has such a large and staple sale.

The first breath of Hyomei's healing air kills all catarrhal poison.

Try Hyomei to-day on J. W. McCollum & Co's. offer to refund the money if the treatment does not give satisfaction.

S.S.S. MADE FROM ROOTS AND HERBS

A SAFE AND RELIABLE BLOOD PURIFIER

In the time of our forefathers the forests and fields were the only laboratories from which they could procure their medicines. They searched out and compounded the different roots, herbs and barks into remedies, many of which have been handed down to succeeding generations, and continuously used with satisfactory results. Among the very best of these old time preparations is S. S. S., a medicine made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers. This absolute vegetable purity of S. S. S. makes it the one medicine that may be used without fear of harmful results in any way. Most blood medicines on the market contain mercury, potash, or some other strong mineral. These act with bad effect on the system, upsetting the stomach, interfering with the digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period of time often cause salivation. No such effects ever result from the use of S. S. S., and it may be taken by children as safely as by older people. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, and all other troubles caused by impure or poisoned blood, S. S. S. is a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities, humors or unhealthy matter, and makes the blood pure and rich. It eliminates every particle of the taint of inherited blood trouble, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, and establishes the foundation for good health. S. S. S. is Nature's Blood Purifier, and its many years of successful service, with a steadily increasing demand for it, is the best evidence of its value in all blood troubles. THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

New Motor Boat Successfully Launched—Personal Notes.

Melrose, March 25.—Monday was a long-looked-for day in Melrose, for on it was to come not only the launching of the new motor boat of the Melrose Transportation Company, but also the launch of a new era of prosperity for the town. With the resumption of regular and reliable transportation facilities all the many worries and troubles about getting passengers and freight to Melrose will disappear.

The time set for the launching was 2:30 p. m., but it was just 5:15 p. m. when everything was ready for the final plunge. Mr. E. J. Whitehead, having mounted on the bow of the boat accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Craig and Miss L. Jackson, addressed a few appropriate remarks to the large crowd present; then Mrs. Craig stepped forward and broke a bottle, gayly decorated with red, white and blue ribbon, and filled with lake water, over the bow, while Miss Jackson unfurled a banner with the name of the boat: "Santa Fe."

Cheers for the boat and the builders were given with a hearty good-will, expressing the best wishes of all Melrose for a successful and profitable business career of the new company.

The boat is a beauty, and sits very evenly and lightly on the water. She is about 50 feet long, twelve feet beam and draws, fully loaded, 2½ feet. The motive-power is a 35-horse-power gasoline engine with four cylinders.

The company also owns the "Lenemma," now known as the "Alto," and will run either boat or both, as the needs of transportation may require.

News Notes.

The Melrose school closed for the term on March 20th.

Melrose Camp No. 176, W. of W., cordially invite their friends to come to their turtle supper, which will be served at the town hall on April 3rd at 7 p. m. Tickets, 25 cents.

A. M. Padgett of Grandin, candidate for the Legislature, and W. F. Avant of Island Grove, who is running for county commissioner, were in town recently looking after their interests.

Dr. Frank McRae of Melrose has announced himself as being in the race for county treasurer of Putnam county. The Doctor is most popular and has many friends in his county who will take great pleasure in supporting him at the primary, knowing that he would make a first-class official, and his many friends in the other counties only regret that they are unable to help him with their votes, which they would be glad to do, but they extend their best wishes for a successful campaign.

The friends of Mrs. O. D. Kent will be sorry to hear of her death on the 18th inst., at Kensington, Conn.

KILL THE GERMS.

That's the Only Way to Cure Dandruff—and Parisian Sage is the Only Killer.

"Parisian Sage, said a New York barber "will kill the destructive and persistent germs of dandruff and abolish the disease. There may be other remedies that will do the same, but I never heard of one."

And just read what one of the foremost barbers of Springfield, Mass., says of Parisian Sage.

"Dear Sirs: I used your Parisian Sage and found it better than any other. It is the best Hair Restorer I ever used, and I have used them all. I find it a great Dandruff remover also. You should get it into all the Barber Shops and get the barbers to use it as it is great. I remain, Yours truly, Geo. A. Stils, 73½ Main street, Springfield, Mass."

Parisian Sage soaks into the scalp and when it reaches the roots of the hair it not only kills every dandruff germ, but it supplies the hair with just the right kind of nourishment to put vigor and strength into it and make it grow.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world: use it one week and you will never give it up.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by W. M. Johnson to stop falling hair; to cure dandruff; to darken gray and faded hair; to cure itching of the scalp or money back. Price 50 cents a bottle at W. M. Johnson's or by mail, charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Twice-a-Week Sun one year and The Farm Journal five years for $1.25. This offer is open to old as well as new subscribers.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on chronic coughs, bronchial and throat affections, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach) it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

A MARRIAGE AT MIDNIGHT.

Young Couple Figure in Sensational Automobile Elopement.

San Antonio, Tex., March 25—First Lieutenant Hunter Harris, of Atlanta, of the Ninth Infantry at Fort Sam Houston, and Miss Lula Allen were the participants in a thrilling midnight automobile elopement, which culminated in their marriage at the residence of Rev. Arthur G. Jones at 1 o'clock Monday morning.

Neither the sister of the groom nor the bride's family were aware of the marriage until morning. Lieutenant Harris met his bride two weeks ago, and their marriage was decided upon at 11 o'clock Sunday night.

In the company of some friends they drove in a blinding rain storm to the residence of the county clerk and prevailed upon him to issue them a marriage license. Following this the party awoke Rev. Mr. Jones, of the First Presbyterian church.

The bride is the daughter of L. B. Allen, a wealthy stockman of this city.

The fund now totals $27,367, and will be largely added to by three benefit performances that are to be given in New York and Brooklyn amusement places.

Italian Hanged at Washington.

Washington, March 25.—Joseph Paolucci, an Italian, was hanged here Monday for the murder of his sweetheart, Elizabeth V. Dodge, in September, 1906. The Italian ambassador intervened in Paolucci's behalf on the claim that his trial had not been an impartial one, but the president refused to commute the sentence.

Price of Meat Advanced.

New York, March 25.—The price of meat was advanced Monday by the wholesalers. Before the butchers are through fixing the new price list this week, meat will be one to two cents a pound higher than it was a week ago.

Suicides in a Cemetery.

Havana, March 25.—Sergeant Rudolph Kratz, of the Seventeenth infantry, committed suicide Monday in the cemetery at Camajuay. He left a letter saying that he was despondent because he had unjustly been denied promotion.

HAVOC ALONG COAST.

Wind and Rain Have Caused Loss of Life and Great Damage.

New Orleans, La., March 25.—As a result of a heavy wind and rain storm, which has raged in portions of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama during the last thirty-six hours, much property has been destroyed, many persons have been injured and at least one person has been killed.

Cyclones have been reported from East Feliciana parish, Louisiana, and Jefferson Davis county, Mississippi, while much damage has been done in the neighborhood of Flomaton, Ala., by heavy rains.

Washouts along the line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad north of Mobile have seriously delayed traffic. All telegraph and telephone wires in the sections visited by the storm have been prostrated, and details regarding the damage done are in many instances lacking.

Southern Mississippi, which already in the past six months suffered from two bad cyclones, appears to have been the storm center again.

TO SEND BIG DELEGATION.

Record-Breaking Attendance Will Go to Denver Convention.

New York, March 25—From present indications New York city will send an almost record-breaking delegation to the democratic national convention at Denver.

It is now estimated that Tammany Hall will be represented by not less than 1,4$$ members.

At first it was thought that the amount necessary for railroad fares and hotel accommodations would reduce the Tammany delegation to a number far below that generally found at national conventions, but Thomas F. Sith, secretary of Tammany Hall, now announces that the party will be, if anything, larger than usual.

SHE TURNED ON THE GAS.

Grief Over Husband's Illness Caused Wife to Take Her Own Life.

New York, March 25.—While John A. Cisco, an aged retired banker, lay dying of pneumonia in his residence on Fortieth street, near Fifth avenue, his wife, worn out by her devoted attendance upon him and shocked by the verdict of the physicians that he could not recover, committed suicide Monday night in an adjoining room by turning on the gas.

Mr. Cisco's condition is so critical that he has not been informed of his wife's death.

Mrs. Cisco was seventy years old, and the couple had been married nearly half a century.

Slot Machines on Street Cars.

New York, March 25—Nickle-in-the-slot methods of collecting fares are indicated as a possibility for practically the whole Manhattan surface street car system in statements by General Manager Oren Root, of the Metropolitan Street Railway company. Mr. Root said that nickle-in-the-slot machines for receiving fares would within a short time be installed on the new pay-as-you-enter cars of the Madison and Fourth avenue lines, leaving the conductors entirely free for the important task of starting and stopping the cars, which, in the opinion of the manager, will mean the elimination of many accidents.

Betting Barred by Congress.

Washington, March 25.—Betting on horse races at Benning, so far as the house of representatives is concerned, shall not continue. Monday that body, by a vote of 70 to 4, amended the anti-gambling laws of the District of Columbia so as to extend them to the territory in which the Benning track is located. The supreme court of the district recently held that these laws did not apply to the Benning track because it was more than one mile from the boundary of the city of Washington.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

Korean "Righteous Army" Issues Manifesto.

WOULD EXTERMINATE JAPS

Attempted Assassination of Durham Stevens, at 'Frisco, Said To Be Result of a Conspiracy Inspired by a Late Manifesto of "Army."

San Francisco, Cal., March 25.—The Call says that the attempt to assassinate Durham W. Stevens, the political adviser of the Korean council of state, it is now said, was the result of a carefully hatched conspiracy inspired immediately by a manifesto of the Korean "righteous army," calling upon all loyal Koreans to consecrate themselves to a holy war and exterminate all Japanese.

"Manifesto: To All Koreans in all Parts of the World:

"Loyalty to his nation and fealty to his parents is the principal law of man's nature. The right to live and the right to die for duty is also the rule of nature.

Grievous Times in Korea.

"But, alas, grievous times have come upon Korea, our compatriots! We who have been educated by our five hundred year old dynasty and raised up by our four thousand year old ancestry have come under the domination of the barbarous savage islanders—the Japanese. They have swooped down upon our country and are indulging their barbarous appetites with a cruel heart. It is so much we could not say it with our tongues nor could we write it with our pens.

"The Japanese have abdicated our emperor, destroyed our villages, killed our brethren, robbed our land, seized our benefits and are the enemy not only of Korea, but of all the world, for they have violated the peace of humanity.

United for Independence.

"Compatriots, we must unite and consecrate ourselves to our land and restore our independence. We are sure our God will help us. We all must do our best to kill all Japanese, their spies, their allies and barbarous soldiers. The Japanese may compare the rising of our righteous army to the attempt of an insect to move a big tree, but right is on our side and we are confident that in the end we shall be victorious, opposing their treachery with the justice of our cause. We will sacrifice our lives to their guns and swords and as the front men fall the men behind will take their places. Determined today we will again attack on the morrow until our vow to exterminate the Japanese or die has been accomplished.

Eyte Lin Yung.

"General Korean Righteous Army.

"Date, 4340 after Tan Koon.

Regard America as Friend.

"I. W. Paik, national president of the Korean Reform League, speaking of the action of the conspirators is quoted as follows:

"Stevens met the fate that comes to all betrayers," he said. "He came into Korea from America, which we have always regarded as our best friend among the nations. He betrayed us. He told us that the nation we most hate must be accepted as our master and he told us that the two Koreans most despised in their own land were the only ones to lead us and as we should go. But we are not fools nor dogs to submit."

"Who are the two Koreans most hated in their own land?" Paik was asked.

"Yee Wan Wong, the prime minister, who also is a Japanese spy, and Song Pung Quan, the minister of agriculture," he replied.

"And they will be laid low, too," he added.

It is said to be 200 Koreans in the two revolutionary leagues here and these are working with a million more who have fled into Russia to rouse the courage of their countrymen to the point of turning upon Japan and driving her out of their land, which the patriots here say is being robbed and pillaged by the brown conquerers.

Tokio, March 25.—The newspapers here are all issuing extras with accounts of the attempt to assassinate D. W. Stevens. Marquis Ito was deeply affected by the receipt of the news and said through his secretary:

"I cannot express my horror."

Marquis Ito is in feeble health.

Baron Ishii said to the Associated Press:

"Mr. Stevens was the last man of whom I would expect assassination at the hands of Koreans whom he has consistently befriended."

The fact that Mr. Stevens' life was safe in Korea and in Japan and that his assassination was attempted in America has brought out universal comment that the deed was the result of the anti-Japanese propaganda in America.

SANTA FE NEWS.

Cowardly Attempt to Murder a Colored Woman—Crop News.

Santa Fe, March 25.—The farmers are rejoicing because of the fine rain yesterday. It was getting too dry for seed to germinate. They are putting in a larger provision crop than usual this year, but the cotton acreage will not be as large as last year. Oats are looking fine, with prospects of a good yield.

Miss Alma Blitch, who has been quite sick for the past fifteen days, is improving we are glad to report, but is very weak yet. She has the prayers of a large circle of friends and relatives for her speedy recovery.

A cowardly attempt at murder was made Monday night in the McGregor quarters, just after dark, by one Walter Colley, colored, upon a defenceless colored woman. He slipped up to the woman's house and shot her, the shot tearing off one arm near the shoulder. Drs. Bishop and Roberts amputated the limb and dressed the wound Tuesday morning. She is not expected to live. At last reports the asassin is still at large. It is claimed that he is an ex-convict.

The road gang has come and gone, but not without leaving signs. Overseer Feaster has proven his competency as a road maker. He has done some fine work, but not enough of it to satisfy those that complain. Come again, Feaster, we had rather see you than a candidate.

There appears to be a growing impression among the Democrats of this State and county that the band wagon is really worth riding on to sure victory, but when that day comes silver dollars will contain the motto: "In Hoc Signo Vinces" beneath a picture of Carrie Nation rampant hatcheting a saloon.

The many friends of Road Supervisor Feaster here think that he acted wisely in his conclusion not to enter the race for sheriff this time, as good road makers are scarce now, and he being one of the best in the county, we had rather keep him on the road and use some of the available material on hand which Alachua county is so abundantly blessed with.

Mrs. Minnie F. Godwin of Rex returned home Friday, after a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blitch, here.

Mrs. W. A. Jones of Madison, Ga., returned home Saturday. She came to attend the burial of her father, Mr. Eli Futch, whose death occurred on the 16th.

J. C. Holder returned to Citronelle last week, after a visit to relatives and friends here. Come again, John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McGregor have returned home, after a two-weeks' visit to friends and relatives at Live Oak.

Held Unconstitutional.

Washington, March 25.—The supreme court of the United States has held the Minnesota railroad rate law to be unconstitutional, because of the enormous penalties imposed by it.

SENATOR BRYAN DEAD

Seventh Representative Claimed by Death in a Year.

SUCCEEDED SEN. MALLORY

Florida Member, After a Brief Illness at Washington, D. C., Answers Last Call—He Was of Delicate Health and Only 32 Years Old.

Washington, March 24.—United States Senator William James Bryan, of Florida, died at Providence hospital at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning of typhoid fever. It was only seventy-three days since he took his seat as the successor of the late Senator Stephen R. Mallory, who died December 23 and thirty-three days of that time was spent in his fight against disease. Several times during Mr.

SENATOR W. J. BRYAN.

Bryan's illness his friends despaired of his recovery, but as late as Saturday night the report was given out that his condition had taken a turn for the better. His death, therefore, came as a surprise and a distinct shock.

In physique Mr. Bryan was unfitted to withstand a protracted fever. He was slight of build and of a nervous temperament. He came to Washington early in January from the warm climate of Florida and from the day of his arrival was far from well. Finally he was compelled to give up and was taken to Providence hospital. During the last few days of his illness he was attended by specialists from Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore.

In Mr. Bryan the senate loses the seventh member by death since the adjournment of the fifty-ninth congress on March 4, a year ago. They were the two late senators from Alabama, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Pettus; Mr. Mallory, of Florida; Mr. Latimer, of South Carolina; Mr. Proctor, of Vermont; Mr. Whyte, of Maryland and Mr. Bryan.

Curiously, the last two were the eldest and the youngest members of the body. Mr. Whyte was eighty-one years of age, and Mr. Bryan less than thirty-two.

Mr. Bryan was born in Orange county, Florida, Oct. 10, 1876. He attended the public schools of his state and Emory college, Georgia, graduating from the latter institution in 1896. Three years later he was graduated from Washington and Lee university and in 1899 began the practice of law in Jacksonville, Fla. Until a short time before his appointment to succeed Mr. Mallory in the senate, he had served as solicitor of the Duval county criminal court. He was married to Miss Janet Allan, of Lexington, Va.

WHO WILL SUCCEED BRYAN?

Much Speculation as to Whom Governor Broward Will Name.

Pensacola, Fla., March 24.—Speculation is rife here as to whom Governor Broward will name as Charlemagne to United States Senator William James Bryan, who died in Washington, Sunday.

Mr. Bryan was married to Miss [illegible] ment being announced Christmas day, and although he was in Washington only a few weeks when he was taken ill, he accomplished much for Florida, and particularly for Pensacola.

The Florida campaign is now in full blast with three candidates for United States senator—Congressman William B. Lamar, of Monticello; John E. Beard, of Pensacola, and Albert Gilchrist, of Jacksonville. It is not believed the governor will name any of these parties and the most plausible selection he could make at this time is believed to be State Senator Thomas F. West, of Santa Rosa, who is not only a close friend to the governor, but brilliant and able.

Ex-Senator Samuel Pasco, of Monticello, was an applicant for the position when Mr. Bryan was named, and it is probable that he will again apply.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

New Motor Boat Successfully Launched—Personal Notes.

Melrose, March 25.—Monday was a long-looked-for day in Melrose, for on it was to come not only the launching of the new motor boat of the Melrose Transportation Company, but also the launch of a new era of prosperity for the town. With the resumption of regular and reliable transportation facilities all the many worries and troubles about getting passengers and freight to Melrose will disappear.

The time set for the launching was 2:30 p. m., but it was just 5.15 p. m. when everything was ready for the final plunge. Mr. E. J. Whitehead, having mounted on the bow of the boat accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Craig and Miss L. Jackson, addressed a few appropriate remarks to the large crowd present; then Mrs. Craig stepped forward and broke a bottle, gayly decorated with red, white and blue ribbon, and filled with lake water, over the bow, while Miss Jackson unfurled a banner with the name of the boat: "Santa Fe."

Cheers for the boat and the builders were given with a hearty good-will, expressing the best wishes of all Melrose for a successful and profitable business career of the new company.

The boat is a beauty, and sits very evenly and lightly on the water. She is about 50 feet long, twelve feet beam and draws, fully loaded, 2½ feet. The motive-power is a 35-horse-power gasoline engine with four cylinders.

The company also owns the "Lenemma," now known as the "Alto," and will run either boat or both, as the needs of transportation may require.

News Notes.

The Melrose school closed for the term on March 20th.

Melrose Camp No. 176, W. of W., cordially invite their friends to come to their turtle supper, which will be served at the town hall on April 3rd at 7 p. m. Tickets, 25 cents.

A. M. Padgett of Grandin, candidate for the Legislature, and W. F. Avant of Island Grove, who is running for county commissioner, were in town recently looking after their interests.

Dr. Frank McRae of Melrose has announced himself as being in the race for county treasurer of Putnam county. The Doctor is most popular and has many friends in the county who will take great pleasure in supporting him at the primary, knowing that he would make a first-class official, and his many friends in the other counties only regret that they are unable to help him with their votes, which they would be glad to do, but they extend their best wishes for a successful campaign.

The friends of Mrs. O. D. Kent will be sorry to hear of her death on the 16th inst., at Kensington, Conn.

Florida Farmer Murdered.

Lake City, Fla., March 23.—[illegible] Tolar, a prominent farmer, was murdered Monday morning near his home between Lake City and Fort White on the line of the Atlantic Coast Line railway. The murderer has escaped, and [illegible]

20 HURT; 3 FATALLY

Head-on Collision on the Queen and Crescent Road.

CARS WERE BADLY WRECKED

Accident, It Seems, Was Due to a Failure to Receive Telegraphic Orders Owing to Some Misunderstanding—Injured Removed.

Lexington, Ky., March 25.—Twenty people were injured, three fatally, in a head-on collision between a Blue Grass special passenger on the Q. & C. railroad and a special freight train at Curdville crossing, between Burgin and High Bridge, in Mercer county, early Tuesday.

The Blue Grass special was on its way to Lexington and Cincinnati.

The cause of the wreck, as near as can be ascertained, is owing to the fact that the night operator for the Queen and Crescent had been relieved several weeks ago and that the day operator had not yet reported for duty.

When the Blue Grass special reached the Burgin depot there was no order and the train rushed on. At Curdville crossing the freight train was also proceeding at good speed and crashed into it. The cars were badly piled up and several hours were required to clear the track.

Danville and Burgin physicians responded to the call for help and rushed to the scene.

The injured were brought to Lexington on a special train.

A MOST IMPRESSIVE WEDDING.

C. C. Chitty and Miss Ida Colman United in Holy Bonds of Wedlock.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at Holy Trinity Episcopal church Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, the contracting parties being C. C. Chitty and Miss Ida Colman, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Colman, Rev. Francis H. Craighill officiating.

This was a very quiet affair, only members of the families of the groom and bride and a few intimate friends being present. However, it was a pretty and most impressive ceremony, the beautiful ritual of the Episcopal church being carried out in the same.

The bride was attired in a handsome white chiffon broadcloth jacket suit, with lace waist and white hat, which was entirely becoming, while the groom wore the conventional black.

The bride is a charming young lady who has been reared here. She is possessed of a sweet disposition, which has made for her many admirers among the young set.

The numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chitty wish them long life and happiness in their married state.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY A VERY FINE WORK

Burtz' Book for 1908 is Complete Encyclopedia in Itself.

IS REPLETE IN EVERY WAY

Contains Classified Directory of Social, Residence and Business Interests, Furnishing All Information of City That Could be Desired.

After some delay, occasioned by inability to secure sufficient labor in the print-shop, Burtz' Gainesville Directory for 1908-9 has made its appearance, and will be distributed and placed on sale immediately.

This book, which is one of the neatest of its kind ever published, is printed on the very best grade of enameled book paper, cloth bound, the cover being buff, with red and black ink, making a very handsome appearance.

The work contains 120 pages and eight pages of inserts in two colors. It is a most complete volume, affording all general information usually carried in a directory, with some extra points. The book is divided into three sections, beginning with a complete general directory. Following this is a classified residence directory, the name, occupation and address of each resident being given, the white and colored people being separated. Following the residential directory, there is an alphabetically arranged and classified business directory, embracing business and professions, manufacturing, etc.

Another feature of this work which makes it unusually attractive is the very high grade of all material used in its construction, every few pages being alternated with cuts illustrating street scenes in Gainesville.

The compiler and publisher of this work draws a most impressive parallel of the rapid growth of Gainesville with other Florida cities. As evidence of this remarkable growth, the population is given for this year as 7,335, as against a population in 1905 of 5,245—an increase within this short period of 2,081 names. Of the present population there is estimated 3,900 whites and 3,435 colored.

This directory will prove of the greatest value to our citizens, and the publisher anticipates no trouble in disposing of the issue without delay.

GOVERNOR BROWARD HERE.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Hon. Napoleon B. Broward, Governor of Florida, who arrived in this city Sunday for a brief visit to his friend, Judge Syd L. Carter, was very much grieved shortly after his arrival here to receive a telegram announcing the sad death of Senator W. J. Bryan.

Governor Broward left on the first train for Tallahassee, after receipt of this telegram, hence did not have an opportunity of meeting his numerous friends here, all of whom would have been glad to see him.

DEATH OF "AUNT SARAH."

Another of Gainesville's Faithful Negro Servants Laid to Rest.

Sarah Green, colored, died at her quarters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Graham, West Main street N., at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon of Bright's disease, after suffering several months.

Deceased was about seventy years of age, and was familiarly known to those with whom she was acquainted as "Aunt Sarah." She was an old slave, faithful almost to a fault, and has been in Florida all her life, having been born and partially reared in Bradford county. She was one of the oldest residents of Gainesville, however, having been here for more than forty years. For the past seventeen years or more she has been a servant of Mrs. Graham, during which time she has proved herself most faithful, and Mrs. Graham and family naturally thought a great deal of her. For the past few years she has occupied a comfortable, snug little room which was built especially for her, in the rear yard of the Graham home, and all during her illness Mrs. Graham personally saw that she had the best of attention.

The Grahams, true to Aunt Sarah, gave her a most respectable burial. They purchased a nice casket, and her remains were laid to rest in a neat lot which was purchased for her.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, Rev. S. A. Huger officiating, assisted by Revs. Deas and Drake. The services were largely attended, a number of white friends of deceased being provided with special seats. These white friends also followed the remains to their last resting-place, carrying flowers to strew upon the grave. The casket was also covered with flowers at the church.

Aunt Sarah's kind is gradually becoming extinct, and she will be greatly missed at the home where she has so long and faithfully served, and where everything possible was done for her as a token of appreciation for her faithfulness.

Informal Dance.

The University boys gave a most delightful informal dance Saturday night at the opera house, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Dougherty of Jacksonville. About fifteen couples had the pleasure of participating in the affair.

About half after eleven the crowd dispersed, after having danced eighteen sets, three extras and "Home, Sweet Home," wishing the young married couple every happiness in life.

FINAL HEARING IN MAY.

Interstate Commission Will Have Final Argument for Florida Growers.

F. D. Warner, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Protective Association, and C. A. Colclough, a member of the association, have returned from Jacksonville, where they went as representatives of the association before the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the argument for better rates on Florida produce.

The story of the discrimination by the transportation companies against Florida is well known, having been published on several former occasions. The hearing in Jacksonville was a continuation of the argument which began in Washington before the commission several weeks ago, and which hearing was postponed to March 20, in Jacksonville.

The hearing in Jacksonville was conducted under the direction of Judge Purdy, and Mr. Warner states was fair in every way. After a couple of days the evidence on both sides was completed, and a final argument was ordered for Washington on May 14, shortly after which a decision may be expected.

MR. STOKES HAS PAPERS.

Holds Order of His Parole and Last Order of General Lee.

Among the prominent Confederates who attended the quarterly session of the United Confederate Veterans last week was H. E. Stokes of LaCrosse.

Captain Stokes was Captain of Company C, Second Florida Regiment, Colonel W. R. Moore commanding, and brought with him a parole under date of Appomattox Court House, Va., April 10, 1865, which gave him the privilege of "going home and remaining undisturbed." He has also a copy of Gen. Robt. E. Lee's last orders, surrendering the Army of Northern Virginia at Appomattox, under date of April 10, 1865, which is well preserved, considering its age.

Mr. Stokes appreciates these documents very highly, and declares he will keep them "to the end of time."

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE NOMINATED TICKET

Housing Meeting Held, at Which City Officers Were Named.

JUDGE H. DAVIS FOR MAYOR

T. W. Shands, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett Named by the League for Aldermen—Interesting Set of Resolutions.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The political pot, which has been at a simmering point for some time, was set to boiling Monday night, when a meeting of the Municipal League was held for the purpose of nominating officers for the ensuing term, to be certified to the City Council, and to be voted for in the April election.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Hon. E. C. F. Sanchez, after which the routine of business for which the session was held was taken up.

The committee on nominations and by-laws made the following report:

"Whereas, It has been suggested, or has come to the knowledge of your committee from parties authorized to speak for the citizens who are not members of this league, that they would name Horatio Davis as a candidate for mayor, and in fact that a petition had been circulated putting him in nomination for mayor, and

"Whereas, We believe that his nomination would be satisfactory to the citizens generally, and being desirous of doing any and everything tending to the harmony and welfare of the city, therefore be it

"Resolved: That we do hereby recommend that he be endorsed and nominated for mayor."

"Whereas, The people of North Gainesville have nominated H. S. Graves for alderman, and believing that he will be satisfactory to the people generally, therefore we recommend that he be endorsed and nominated for alderman; and we recommend that the following named be nominated for aldermen: T. W. Shands, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett.

"Your committee desires to say to the league that they have labored earnestly and zealously to bring about harmony in the next municipal election. We endeavored to have the opposition (or non-leaguers) to suggest or name a part of the ticket, and the league the other part; but at the very last moment this arrangement fell through.

"The names presented are from among our very best citizens. We believe they could fill the various positions for which they have been selected with credit to themselves and satisfaction to the citizens.

"Respectfully submitted.

"J. PAGE PARKER.

"Chairman Com. on Nominations."

The report of the committee was received, and the committee discharged with thanks.

It was ordered that the league nominate for mayor Horatio Davis.

For alderman, T. W. Shands was nominated in the place of I. E. Webster, resigned, for the short term, and aldermen for the full term, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford and S. J. Burnett. They were nominated by a rising vote of the house.

Ordered, that the names of the candidates be presented to the council to be placed on the ballot to be voted for at the next city election.

Adjournment ordered until Wednesday night, March 27.

E. C. F. SANCHEZ, President.

S. F. BROOKS, Secretary.

BABY'S EYESIGHT WAS THREATENED

By Terrible Eczema—Head Became a Mass of Itching Rash and Sores—Would Scratch Till Blood Came—Much Money Wasted in Fruitless Treatments—Disease Was Soon

CURED AT SLIGHT COST BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our little girl was two months old when she got a rash on her face and within five days her face and head were all one sore. We used different remedies but it got worse instead of better and we thought she would turn blind and that her ears would fall off. She suffered terribly, and would scratch until the blood came. At night we had to pin her hands down. This went on until she was five months old, then I had her under our family doctor's care, but she continued to grow worse. He said it was eczema. When she was seven months old I started to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent, and in three weeks — what a change! I kept using the Cuticura Remedies for two months and our baby was a different girl. You could not see a sign of a sore and she was as fair as a new-born baby, and all for the small cost of a dollar and seventy-five cents where we had spent ten times the money for doctoring. She is now two years old and has not had a sign of the eczema since. Mrs. H. F. Budke, R. F. D. 4, LeSueur, Minn., Apr. 15 and May 2, 1907."

SLEEP KILLED

By an Itching Humor. Another Cure by Cuticura Remedies.

"I broke out with a humor which spread almost all over my body. The itching would get worse on retiring, so I could not sleep. I tried several remedies but it grew worse until I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Pills which began to relieve me at once. By the time I had used one vial of the Pills, the humor was entirely gone. I wish every sufferer could secure the Cuticura Remedies. Travis Bates, Hamburg, Ark., April 26, 1907."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.) THE C... COUNCIL CERTIFIED NAMES

Large Crowd Was Present at Meeting Tuesday Evening.

SEVERAL PETITIONS PRESENTED

Requesting that Candidates for Various Offices be Placed on Ticket Were Received and Acted Upon—Municipal League and Anti-League.

From Wednesday's Daily:

The City Council met Tuesday evening for the purpose of receiving and certifying names for the various city offices, a large crowd being present.

There seemed to be little interest manifested in municipal politics until Monday, when the Municipal League nominated its ticket. It was on Tuesday that several petitions for alderman were circulated and signed, in accordance with the rules providing that twenty-five or more names should be affixed to a petition for any person to enter the race for any office who had not been nominated by any convention.

A deep interest was manifested in the petitions. The league agreed with the non-leaguers upon the mayoralty, but their differences seemed to vary as to the aldermen. There was no friction on any other of the names certified, all seeming to be satisfied with the remainder of the ticket.

The following names were certified in regular order, and will be placed on the ticket:

For Mayor—Horatio Davis.

For Clerk and Treasurer—J. Maxey Dell.

For Assessor—J. B. Douglass, B. R. Colson, J. Fletcher Hill, W. S. McDowall.

For Tax Collector—T. B. Ellis.

For Marshal—B. T. Arnow, C. L. Kite, Chas. Pinkoson.

For Aldermen—S. J. Burnett, H. S. Graves, C. Y. Crawford, B. F. Hampton, Geo. K. Broome, J. A. Goodwin, the former three being League candidates, as was also T. W. Shands.

For Alderman, unexpired term of I. E. Webster—T. W. Shands.

For Member Board of Public Works—W. W. Hampton.

The election will be held on April 14th.

The House has decided by an almost unanimous vote to replace the motto, "In God We Trust," on the coins. It is to be feared, however, that this is more of a concession to their country constituents than an evidence of respect to the Deity.

J. D. Matheson announces his candidacy for county treasurer in this issue of The Sun. Mr. Matheson is one of the oldest and best known citizens of Alachua county, and his integrity has never been questioned. His hosts of friends throughout the county will give him loyal support.

Gainesville offers her last short skirt to some ambitious town who wants to don shoe-top dresses. We believe we have a bid in fair Alachua, who seems to be aspiring to make her debut—but maybe Palatka will outbid her.

G. D. Folks, traveling solicitor for The Sun, has been put out of business for a few days by an attack of the mumps, and is now confined to his home. He has added many names to The Sun's already large subscription list, and as soon as he recovers he will renew his campaign and "keep everlastingly at it."

Hon. A. P. Baskin died at the home of his son, Dr. J. G. Baskin, at Dunnellon, on Saturday last. He had been a citizen of Florida for more than thirty years and represented Marion county in the Legislature of 1887. In 1892 he was the nominee of the Populists for Governor, but was defeated by Governor Mitchell. As a man and citizen he was admired by all who knew him, and his death, which resulted from cancer of the stomach, will be generally regretted.

As will be seen by announcement elsewhere in this paper, C. C. Pedrick is a candidate for re-election as county commissioner from this, the third district. Mr. Pedrick has for two terms been the efficient representative of the people as commissioner, during which time he has filled the position not only with credit to himself, but benefit to the community, as is best demonstrated by the miles of hard roads and the number of substantial steel bridges which have been constructed during his administration. Mr. Pedrick stands squarely on the platform of good roads and public improvements, and asks the support of all those who want to see this policy carried out.

Since The Tallahassee True Democrat has suggested the name of Col. T. J. Appleyard, the brainy editor of The Lake City Index, for the office of State Comptroller, many of the leading newspapers of the State have taken up the subject, with the result that Col. Appleyard is gaining more popularity every day in this connection. The Sun heartily endorses him, as no better man in the State could be secured for the position. His service in public life for more than twenty years has fitted him peculiarly for the position of Comptroller, because he would enter the position thoroughly acquainted with his duties—and he would perform them. Brother Appleyard may put us down in his column—because we know him and appreciate his manhood and ability.

The Florida State Horticultural Society was invited one year ago at the annual session held in St. Petersburg to meet this year in Gainesville. The invitation was given by Mayor Thomas, and the Commercial Board of Trade, and was accepted in spite of the claims of several rival towns anxious to secure the meeting for themselves. The victory for Gainesville was largely due to the efforts and speeches of Mr. W. N. Wilson, one of the most prominent members.

The executive committee of the society has settled upon May 12 to 15 inclusive as the time for the annual meeting of 1908, and has appointed Mr. Wilson as chairman of the local committee on arrangements. A large attendance is expected, and the officials would not be at all surprised if this meeting proved to be the largest held in its history.

The Horticultural Society comes of age this year, this being its twenty-first session. It is consequently responsible for its actions and knows its own mind. During these twenty-one years it has held its annual meetings in about every part of the State from Pensacola to Miami, and it is fitting, as well as a unique coincidence, that it should celebrate its coming of age within a few miles of Interlachen, the place of its birth. The most numerously attended meeting was at Miami, the second best attended being last year at St. Petersburg, when upwards of three hundred were present.

The society is composed of the most advanced horticulturists of the State, although many of its members are from other parts of the United States. Its "proceedings" go to many foreign countries as well as to all parts of this country. The "proceedings," composed of the speeches and discussions made at its annual meetings, are considered an important part of scientific literature. These reports, or "proceedings," are the best and most handsome published by any horticultural society in the United States.

In spite of the great work accomplished by the society it has no other support than the annual dues from the members. At present it has about seven hundred members. Anyone can join by paying one dollar and subscribing to the constitution. As every member receives free a copy of the "Proceedings," he really gets in return for his small outlay many times its value.

SENATOR BRYAN'S DEATH.

Commenting upon Senator Bryan's death, The Times-Union of Monday says:

"Will Bryan is dead! This sad message flashed from lip to ear throughout Jacksonville yesterday, and the wires carried it to friends and relatives in various parts of the State. The news came as a shock, because reports from his bedside during the last few days were encouraging, and the latest bulletin that came over The Times-Union's leased wire from Washington at 2 o'clock Sunday morning reported a much improved condition and hope for his recovery.

"Will Bryan was a lovable character, handsome, magnetic and eloquent, and his friends looked forward to a brilliant career for him. They were proud of him, and they were happy in his success. But the Grim Reaper came and earthly ambitions for him are at end.

"Side by side in the Senate chamber sat Senator Whyte of Maryland and Senator Bryan of Florida, the oldest and the youngest Senator. Only a few days separate them in their journey to the Great Beyond. Both are dead. And it seems only yesterday that they were in the full vigor of life, planning together measures for the benefit of their constituents.

"Seven United States Senators have been claimed by death within the past ten months. These were John T. Morgan and Edmund W. Pettus, both of Alabama; Stephen R. Mallory of Florida, Asbury C. Latimer of South Carolina, Redfield F. Proctor of Vermont, William Pinckney Whyte of Maryland and William James Bryan of Florida.

"In this unusual harvest of death, Florida has twice suffered, the Reaper coming the second time while the wound left by the death of Senator Mallory still ached in the hearts of his friends."

BLIND ORATOR SWAYS MANY.

A man totally blind would hardly seem adapted for modern political life, yet one so afflicted has fought through three exciting campaigns and has just been elected United States Senator from Oklahoma. The blindness of Thomas Pryor Gore was caused by two painful accidents. At eight a boy playmate injured his left eye with a stone; three years later he himself shot a toy arrow into the other.

When his father suggested his attending a school for the blind, he declared, "I will go to school here. A school for the blind will furnish neither the books nor the opportunity I seek." Events justified his choice, says The April Delineator; he gained the highest honors there and at law school and college. At nineteen he was nominee for the Legislature; at twenty-two, populistic delegate-at-large in Mississippi, and was unanimously selected in 1900 as Congressional standard-bearer for the same party in Texas.

He owes his success to his power as an orator. His memory is remarkable. It is recorded that at a meeting with an opposition speaker—Senator Money—Gore asked for a division of time. Disregarding his youth and blindness, Money replied: "I will speak as long as I please; you are at liberty to do the same."

For three hours he harangued, thinking to exhaust Gore's patience. The latter patiently bided his time, and then for four hours more entertained the howling appreciative audience. Page after page of The "Congressional Record" he quoted from memory—quotations that filled his antagonist with rage, but stripped him of every defense. Now Gore's opponents realize that he is not a man to be tampered with or ignored. His career in the Senate will be worth watching.

It is gratifying to the people of Gainesville to hear strangers entering the city compliment us so enthusiastically on our steady growth. Like a young child being fed on a malt fat, the town is springing into maturity, which is evidenced by the rapidly-growing population, as shown by the edition of the city directory, just completed. A gain of 2,080 names in the short space of two years and a half in a town which only claimed (but had) 5,245 population at the time of the last census, is something to be proud of—and we all feel like throwing up our hats and yelling a little bit.

WHO USES HYOMEI?

The Best People in Gainesville, Say J. W. McCollum & Co.

No other remedy or treatment for catarrh has ever been as popular or made so many remarkable cures in Gainesville as Hyomei.

The best people attest its curative virtue in catarrhal troubles, say J. W. McCollum & Co., who are the local agents. The fair way in which Hyomei was sold, to refund the money unless it gave satisfaction, was the best proof when it was introduced that it possessed unusual curative powers. J. W. McCollum & Co. took all the risk of the treatment giving satisfaction, and left it to the purchasers to be the judge.

The sales rapidly grew and to-day there is no other remedy in J. W. McCollum & Co's. stock that has such a large and staple sale.

The first breath of Hyomei's healing air kills all catarrhal poison.

Try Hyomei today on J. W. McCollum & Co's. offer to refund the money if the treatment does not give satisfaction.

JUDGE SYD L. CARTER

Members of Legislature.

We all agree that our best men should be sent to the Legislature, but it is a sad fact that we do not always send them. Had we not had a few able and good men in the last Legislature but little if anything would have been accomplished. We have in mind one man, Hon. Syd L. Carter, of Alachua county, who arose to the occasion and proved himself worthy of the name of Representative not only of his own county, but the entire State. Being one of the leading lawyers in the State, Mr. Carter was enabled to forcibly present his arguments, which, backed by merit, carried conviction, and with an untiring energy easily placed him as one of the leading members of the last Legislature. It is a pity that the Legislature could not be filled with such able men as Syd L. Carter. That he expects to make the race again is indeed good news, and while we have nothing to do with it, the people of Alachua county should re-elect him to the Legislature unanimously.—Manatee Record.

Judge Horatio Davis will be the next mayor of Gainesville, and will be elected without opposition. It will be a fitting tribute to one of the best men who has ever honored Gainesville with his citizenship, and an honor of which any man would justly feel proud. Judge Davis is possessed of one of the brightest legal minds of any member of the Florida bar, and is universally esteemed by all who know him. This is not the first political honor that our people have sought to bestow upon him, but being of a retiring nature he has, heretofore, flatly refused to accept political office since his residence in Gainesville. The editor of The Sun has had the honor of the acquaintance and friendship of Judge Davis for many years, and never have we heard an individual speak disparagingly of him—either as a man or lawyer. He will make Gainesville an able and impartial chief magistrate, and in honoring him the people will honor themselves.

It makes a fellow feel good these mornings, when he is awakened by the constant roar of whistles from the various factories, calling the men to work, and reminding them that we must be up and doing to assist in making Gainesville "better than what it is;" and it makes the fellow who has got the energy to get out of bed at the sound of those 6-o'clock whistles feel better to see the men passing, happy and whistling, with their well-filled dinner-pails, going to their respective places of employment. We've got a big ginger-cake to wager to a doughnut that not another city in Florida the population of Gainesville can boast of as many busy places of industry—and we are all proud.

Abe Hummel, having completed his term in the penitentiary, has sailed for Europe for a year's stay. This will at least help the average of American citizenship for twelve months longer.

Were Inspected Tuesday Evening. Large Crowd Was Present.

A FINE EXHIBITION DRILL

The Men Turned Out in Good Condition in Heavy Marching Order, and Were Admired by the Inspecting Officer—Dance at Conclusion.

The inspection of Company H, Second Infantry, Third Battalion, Florida Troops, Captain J. W. Blanding commanding, with Lieutenants Warren and Wheeler present, was held at the new armory Tuesday evening, in accordance with the instructions of Adjutant-General J. Clifford R. Foster, and proved the most successful military function ever held since the Guards were organized, fifty-nine men, rank and file, reporting at this meeting.

The inspection was made under the supervision of Captain Lawrence S. Miller, Coast Artillery, United States Army, assisted by Captain Byron McG. West, a graduate of East Florida Seminary, who represented the Adjutant-General.

Major A. H. Blanding, commanding the Third Battalion, was present, as was also Col. I. E. Webster, F. S. T., retired, and Captain N. H. Cox, of the University, who is a supernumerary of the State Troops.

There was a large crowd present, and the handsome armory was never shown off to better advantage, every department being well lighted and in order, and those present made a thorough inspection of the quarters.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the company was called to attention, when the inspection began. The men were in heavy marching order, wearing the khaki uniform, with all accoutrements. The men presented an excellent appearance as they stood at attention, while the inspection was being made, and it is evident that the inspecting officers were well pleased with the company and its general deportment.

At the conclusion of the inspection the company was marched upon the streets, where an exhibition drill was given, the men executing the various maneuvers and manuals with the regularity of the regular soldier. Captain Blanding and his officers are to be complimented upon the efficient manner in which they have trained their men.

Among those present was a large number of ladies, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the affair. During the evening, while quarters were being inspected, delicious fruit punch was served by a committee of young ladies, and the occasion was closed with an informal dance by the young people.

NEWS NOTES FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., March 24.—Two extraordinary speeches have been delivered in the Senate during the past week, one by Senator Tillman and the other by Senator La Follette. The speech of the South Carolinian was, as usual, picturesque, being a wholesale denunciation of the President, of whom he said, "He is now planning a truce with rich malefactors and is ready to grant amnesty to all past offenders. The price of negro delegates in the South rises each day through improper use of Federal patronage. The most flagrant of all the executive neglects to enforce the law, a running sore, a cancer on the body politic, hated of all good citizens and denounced even by the President himself, who anathematized it in bitter language, but who takes no steps to apply the remedy, is the failure to enenforce the plain letter of the law relating to the control of the national banks. The lavish use of bank resources and credit for years has borne fruit by enabling Napoleons of finance through the medium of the New York Stock Exchange to market billions of dollars of almost worthless stocks and to place these in the hands of helpless investors who have exchanged hard-earned money for them which has thus been diverted from the channels of legitimate business." Mr. Tillman was greeted with the usual crowded galleries and at times his remarkable statements and unique delivery elicited applause, until finally the Vice-President was obliged to threaten to clear the galleries unless it ceased.

Senator LaFollette denounced in unmeasured terms and tones the Aldrich bill, which he declared was being enacted in the interest of the railways, the Standard Oil Company and J. Pierpont Morgan. He charged that the recent panic and the entire financial stringency had been produced by Morgan, Rockefeller, et al., for the sole purpose of adding to their pecuniary profit. Mr. LaFollette excites a certain amount of interest not only by what he says but by the extraordinary manner in which he says it. He alternately shouts and whispers, crouches, throws up his arms, bends double and pounds his desk or stamps his foot. At times his voice rises to a perfect scream and a listener who could not see him might imagine murder were being done. He is a star actor in the Senate.

The present indications are that before my next letter is written the Aldrich bill will have been passed by the Senate with every Republican vote, save La Folette's, and about eight Democratic votes. The Senate committee on Finance has stricken out the railway bond provision of the bill, had done so in fact before Mr. La Follette made his speech, and this, it is believed, will serve to disarm most of the opposition in the House, while the President is seeking to secure its passage and urging members of both houses who call upon him to vote for it.

The President has recently shocked a great many people in Washington by urging the District Attorney to demand a jail sentence for the President of the American National Bank and the Washington Chamber of Commerce. This man, who is wealthy and influential, and has been making and selling, as a side issue, a head-ache remedy and a "brain food" both of which he guaranteed "free from injurious drugs." Analysis has shown, however, that both contain injurious drugs which will almost certainly affect the heart and which are like to result in drug habits. This is the first conviction under the Pure Food and Drug Act and the President takes the ground that if a wealthy bank president is made to serve a jail sentence at the beginning it will have a most beneficial effect in promoting observance of the law.

There has been a great deal of Johnson talk in Washington this week and some of the Democratic leaders are beginning to believe that the Minnesota Governor may stand a chance of nomination at Denver. It appears at this distance as if the Minnesotian was in absolute earnest in his effort to capture the nomination and as he is practically the only opponent of Mr. Bryan thus far it seems altogether likely that the opposition to Bryan will all center on Johnson. That this will amount to enough to result in giving Johnson the nomination few men will predict at this time, the majority believing that Mr. Bryan will have things all his own way when the convention meets next July.

is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

LETTER TO C. W. CHASE,
Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Sir: There are two sorts of paint: one to sell and make money, the other to paint and save money.

Who gets the money? The maker, the seller, the painter.

Where does it come from? The owner, of course; he pays the painter for doing the work, and the dealer for gallons of paint; and he pays the paint manufacturer, gallons again; more gallons, more money all round; for the owner to pay to the painter, dealer and paint manufacturer.

What's the paint that saves money? Gallons again; less gallons, less money for paint, less money for wages; a gallon of paint is $5 for wages and paint. Less gallons, less money to pay, $5 a gallon.

Two sorts of paint: less gallons and more: less money and more: $5 a gallon difference: two to one in gallons and money.

It costs twice as much to paint the average more-gallons paint as to paint Devoe. When the people find out, it may not be quite so easy to sell extravagant paint by calling it "cheap."

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

P. S.: The S. J. Thomas Co. sell our paint.

DISPATCHES FROM THE CONVENTION.

Matters of Interest to Members of the W. C. T. U.

The following W. C. T. U. happenings of the Anti-Saloon League Convention during the past week are furnished for publication:

Miss Minnie Neal, State Superintendent of W. C. T. U. of Florida, being unable to be present at the convention, sent greetings to same to be read by Mrs. J. P. Coffin, State Superintendent of Sunday School Work. Mrs. Coffin also brought greetings, and both were heartily enjoyed.

Some of the most important of each we thought might be of interest to some who were unable to be present. Miss Neal's was entitled "Hearty Greetings to the Florida Anti-Saloon League."

"At the Norfolk convention of the Anti-Saloon League in September, 1907, Rev. P. A. Baker, the general superintendent, in his annual report, said: 'The womanhood of this country can do the best service against the liquor traffic through the church and the W. C. T. U. The manhood of the country can do the best service through the church and the Anti-Saloon League.'

"The greatest organization of women in the world extend warm greetings to the great organization of man against the saloon.

"We stand with you in the work; we welcome your coming. There is need of all existing temperance organizations. None have pre-emptied the territory. The foe is mighty, the need is great. The work is for all, and especially is there work for our manhood in this warfare against the terrible home destroyer—the saloon. We have labored long against great discouragement. There has been growth in sentiment, increase steadily in reform legislation, but the work is not done. Our laws recognize the license system, laws are openly violated. Perhaps the same Providence who announced so many years ago, "It is not good for man to be alone," recognized that it was not well for women to be alone in reform work and sent the Anti-Saloon League into our State to supplement the educational work of the W. C. T. U. with a crystalizing of the feeling of men against intemperance into a lively interest in the affairs of state, would that you had come sooner. If the great educational work of the W. C. T. U. has produced a generation of men and women that will no longer allow them to be partners in the liquor traffic, who shall say that this organization has not accomplished a marvelous work? We have labored in faith, knowing our work was eternal. We rejoice at your coming—where we can use our forces to help you we will spare no efforts. There is one foe. Let us direct every force to its destruction. MINNIE E. NEAL."

Mrs. J. P. Coffin calls the W. C. T. U. "Organized Mother Love," and says as follows: "The work of the W. C. T. U. is largely educational, being an outgrowth of the Woman's Crusade of 1873-4, when women, grown desperate over the havoc made of their homes by the saloon, arose in their wrath to meet the curse of all their sorrow and humiliation. In less than two months from the time they started it was driven out of two hundred and fifty towns and villages. They were an Anti-Saloon League then and have been ever since, as the W. C. T. U., the largest organization of women in the world, covering fifty-two countries, with a membership of about 500,000. Our organization believes that prevention is better than cure, and that knowledge is necessary in order to escape an evil; therefore many of our departments of work are educational. The children are our hope for the future. The W. C. T. U. originated the idea of scientific instruction in the schools and were also an important factor in securing the insertion of the quarterly temperance lesson in the international Sunday school Lesson Series, and have caused the unfermented juice of the grape to be substituted in nearly every church in place of fermented wine at the Lord's Supper.

"The saloon men say that they must find some means to get the boys, as they are necessary to their future success. Shall we not work the harder to prevent this awful sacrifice?"

Mrs. Coffin closed her very interesting remarks with the following appropriate little poem written by her husband:

"Let us bring a sister's welcome
"To a brother newly born,
"Trusting as through life we journey
"Brighter will be every morn.

"May the world be brighter, better,
"For the brother born today.
"May the glorious cause of temperance
"Prosper greatly on the way.

"May we now as brother, sister,
"Look to God to guard and guide,
"And may Satan's power be weakened
"As we journey side by side."

Mrs. Margaret Gross represented the Gainesville W. C. T. U., and all were delighted with her words of welcome. She not only spoke for Gainesville, but for her far-off home in Nova Scotia, showing how the little white ribbons span the globe. She spoke of the A. S. L., an organization conceived and born of the Woman's Christian Union and working along harmoniously with it, as a younger brother, both bent on a noble work for God and home and native land.

Road Camps Moved.

Supervisor J. R. Emerson, who is superintending the construction of the Newberry and Gainesville road, Tuesday moved his camp from the vicinity of the Bock sawmill, where it has been located for the past few months, to a point about two miles beyond.

Mr. Emerson has a good force of men at work, and is making fine progress.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes: "I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

After tertained with ttle folks were g-room, where an elegant lun was spread, the table being decorated in St. Patrick emblems, the center-piece being a statue bearing the Irish flag, around which a snake was coiled. Attractive spiders, bugs and frogs were part of the decorations. A large cake iced to represent a basket filled with candy and decorated with maiden-hair ferns added very much to the beauty of the table. Miss McLain had very dainty shamrock place cards, napkins and pretty little boxes of candy for the favors.

The refreshments were sandwiches, olives, pickles, crackers, stuffed eggs, salad kisses, ambrosia, ice cream in shamrock shapes and cakes.

It was with great regret that the time came for the little folks to bid their hostess good-bye, as they had spent such a pleasant afternoon.

Received a Fine Cow.

The Florida Experimental Station, being the agricultural department of the University of Florida, has received from the American Shorthorn Association at Chicago, a fine heifer, which will be used and exhibited at the University grounds, to demonstrate the relative value of catttle when fattened on the products of Florida.

The Shorthorn is a beef cattle, and is proving very prolific and fine in the sections which are feeding the products which prove profitable to them and their conditions.

Through the courtesy of the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association, three Shorthorns have recently been sent to the University, agricultural department, as experiments, this shipment being the last to arrive. The management of the agricultural department at the University are well pleased with what they have seen of the Shorthorn breed, and will give their report after a thorough investigation.

Train Service Reduced.

Patrons of the Seaboard Air Line on the Cedar Key division will regret very much to learn that the daily freight train to Cedar Key has been discontinued, and the service now will be performed three times a week with this train.

This train has afforded a great convenience to those who desire to come to Gainesville on business, and it is hoped that the full service will soon be re-inaugurated.

FERTILIZER EXPERIMENTS ON COTTON

By A. W. Blair, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

FERTILIZERS USED.

During both seasons here referred to, the experiments were conducted on second-quality high pine land, and Sea Island cotton seed was planted. The experiment field was divided into tenth-acre plots, which were fertilized with a variety of fertilizers in varying amounts. The following mixture was taken as the standard for an acre:

200 pounds of acid phosphate (14 to 15 per cent.)
150 pounds of bright cottonseed meal.
50 pounds of muriate of potash (48 to 50 per cent.)

400 pounds.

The quantities of these materials were increased and decreased singly and collectively within reasonable limits. Other materials were also tried; but they did not give any better results, and in most cases were not so good. If it is desired, kainit may be substituted in the above formula for the muriate of potash, in which case four times as much kainit as muriate should be used to have the same amount of actual potash.

SOME RESULTS IN 1906.

(1) In 1906 plot 7, which received the standard, yielded an increase over the plot that received no fertilizer of about 340 pounds of seed cotton per acre. If we assume that this was worth 6c per pound, we have $20.40 as the gain, which was apparently due to the 400 pounds of fertilizer, for the two plots in question were side by side. The cost of the 400 pounds of fertilizer would probably not much exceed $5.50, thus leaving a net gain of about $14.90 per acre.

(2) Plot 19, which received this mixture at the rate of 600 pounds per acre, yielded at the rate of 150 pounds of seed cotton per acre more than the standard plot, and this was the largest yield of any of the plots in 1906. This increase, according to the price assumed, would be worth $9.00, while the additional 200 pounds of fertilizing material would cost about $2.75, leaving a net gain over the standard of $6.25 per acre; and a net gain of $21.15 over the unfertilized plot.

(3) When, however, we put on 800 pounds per acre, that is, double the standard (plot 20), the yield was not quite as good as with 600 pounds of fertilizer. This would seem to indicate that there is no profit in applying much if any, more than 600 pounds per acre of a fertilizer of the grade mentioned.

(4) When only one-half the standard amount was applied, that is, 200 pounds per acre, there was a falling off from the standard. The net gain from plot 18, which was thus fertilized, was about $12.25 more than the unfertilized plot, and $2.65 less than the standard.

SOME RESULTS IN 1907.

The results for the past year are not as conclusive as those for 1906, owing to the injurious effects of the root-knot (for a description of this disease see Farmers' Bulletin, No. 302, U. S. Dep. of Agr.); though here, as in 1906, plot 19, which received 600 pounds per acre, gave the largest yield of any (800 pounds of seed-cotton per acre); while plot 18, which immediately adjoined it, and received only 200 pounds of fertilizer (half the standard) per acre, yielded nearly the same as in 1906 (350 pounds per acre). It is especially significant that these two plots, lying side by side, should give results which correspond so closely, plot for plot, for the two years, since the experiment was conducted in Columbia county in 1906, and in Alachua county in 1907.

CONCLUSIONS.

The facts so far seem to indicate plainly that there is profit in applying 400 to 600 pounds per acre of a complete fertilizer on poor grade pine land, but that to go much beyond this amount is not profitable. That the practice, which is still quite prevalent, of putting on 100 to 200 pounds per acre of a poorly balanced fertilizer (such as cottonseed meal or kainit), is unprofitable, seems even more clearly indicated. There seem good reasons for believing that the man who has been using 100 to 200 pounds of cottonseed meal or kainit per acre on cotton, may increase his yield to a profitable extent by applying instead 200 to 400 pounds or more of a complete fertilizer.

COCOANUT MEAL AS A DAIRY FEED

By John M. Scott, of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

COCOANUT MEAL.

In recent years the manufacture of cocoanut oil on a large scale from the dried "meat" of the cocoanut (copra) has given a by-product known as cocoanut meal. This material has been placed on the markets as a dairy feed. A chemical analysis of the cocoanut meal with which our experiments were conducted indicated that its apparent feeding value was in excess of half that of cottonseed meal.

CONDITIONS OF THE EXPERIMENT.

Four cows were selected from the dairy herd and divided into two lots, so that the period of lactation in each lot would be as nearly comparable as possible. The feeding time was divided into three equal periods of twenty-one days each, with seven days preliminary feeding before each of the three periods, so as to change the feeding gradually. Each lot received the same amount of bran and shorts; but the cottonseed meal and cocoanut meal were not fed in equal, but in equivalent rations, which were calculated from the results of the chemical analysis.

RESULTS OBTAINED.

The experiment proper lasted sixty-three days, during which time the cows which were fed with cottonseed meal produced 1,888.5 pounds of milk, and the cows which received cocoanut meal gave 1,844 pounds of milk; so that the balance in favor of cottonseed meal was only 44.5 pounds for the whole period, or an average of a little more than 11 ounces a day. (One gallon of milk weighs 8.6 pounds.)

From the above results, we find that one pound of cottonseed meal is nearly equal to two pounds of cocoanut meal for milk production. This corresponds nearly to the results of the chemical analyses of these two materials. In other words, our experiments indicate that a unit of protein from cocoanut meal is very nearly, but not quite, equal to a unit of protein from cottonseed meal.

FEED CONSUMED.

In this experiment the total amount of feeds consumed were as follows: First Test—Cocoanut meal, 453 pounds; bran, 1,008 pounds; shorts, 1,008 pounds. Second Test—Cottonseed meal, 252 pounds; bran, 1,008 pounds; shorts, 1,008 pounds.

One pound of cottonseed meal with the proper amount of bran and shorts produced 7.09 pounds of milk; while one pound of cocoanut meal with the corresponding amount of bran and shorts produced only 4.06 pounds of milk.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS.

So far as we are able to detect, the cocoanut meal had no bad effects on the general health or constitutions of the animals. After the first few feeds the cows all seemed to relish the cocoanut meal, and apparently ate it as heartily as they did cottonseed meal. The cows were weighed at regular intervals, and a comparison shows that they all gained a little in weight during the period of the experiment.

The test reported here was not conducted during the best season of the year for the dairy cow. The hot weather of July and August, when accompanied by an abundance of flies and mosquitoes, is not conducive to a good yield of milk. This, no doubt, accounts in part for the low daily average yield per cow, which was a little less than two gallons. This is what would be called only a fair yield for a good dairy cow. A good cow ought to give an average of 2.5 gallons of milk a day.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.
